To whom it may concern,

This is a letter of recommendation for Emil Mihai Lixandru.

My name is Charles Gunter. I am a Jamaican national who emigrated to the United Kingdom in 2002 to seek asylum from the challenges in my home country.

During my time here I came across difficulties with my legal status. I had left the country to visit Egypt and upon re-entry I was detained in immigration. It was at this point that Emil reached out to me to support me in my efforts to ensure my legal status and secure my place in the United Kingdom. Emil advised me on the correct documentation and processes I needed to follow in order to establish myself and legal status in the United Kingdom. He was invaluable in his support, guidance and encouragement. Thanks to him I was able to stay here in the UK and have any legal issues resolved in my efforts to seek asylum. He has made a huge impact in my life – allowing me to live freely and legally in a country I love.

I can highly recommend Emil as a man of outstanding character. He is a man that I trust completely. He is a sound and reliable individual who is there when you need him and goes out of his way to support those who are in difficult situations. I cannot recommend him enough.

Yours faithfully,
