To whom it may concern:

Please accept this as my letter of recommendation for Mr Lixandru who I appointed as my legal representative, worked extremely hard in helping me achieve the results I expected from my case.

Emil is highly organised, has great communication skills and I have always been very impressed with the way that he has approached work. He never missed a scheduled meeting and he always took my calls and replied to my emails.

What I especially liked about Emil was his happy, positive, cheerful personality and his ability to remain calm in crisis situations, he also expressed the ability to show empathy and was able to reassure me with a successful outcome for my case.

He is a solid legal representative who practices nothing but the best customer service methods, I would happily re-appoint Emil in the future as I consider him to be a valuable asset in his field of work, who consistently achieves good results and delivers all expectations.

Thanking you.

Yours Sincerely

Mr R Karwal
